What does this video mean? This video is of a woman with red hair and blue eyes opening up a package and talking about her love for pumpkins. She has an online store where she sells various pumpkin related items, such as clothes and jewelry. The business was started in 2009 by Kendra Holmes, known on the internet as PunkinLove. In 2012 she launched a blog with her daughter Brookleigh to show how they make their products from beginning to end. In 2013 she also created an online shop where people can buy what they see in the video. Not only does this video showcase the business, but it also shows how much she loves pumpkins. She often wears a shirt saying "I love pumpkins" and has an entire pumpkin room in her house, and uses many photos of her and her family posing with pumpkins as the background for her online forum. What is the main idea of the video? The main idea behind this video is to show off what she sells on her website. She talks about how she started doing this in 2009, and that it has grown into a small business that gives her a reason to leave work early everyday to talk about something that makes her happy. She also explains that the business has been a huge help to her daughter, Brookleigh. Brookleigh was born with a congenital heart defect, and her mother says without Punkin Love, she would have had to stay at home and not be able to go to school. She also states she wished she was doing this from home from the start, but now that she has a shop set up for it she is following her dream. "I hope you all follow your dreams no matter how scary it can be" Kendra says. The last thing that is shown is a picture of Brookleigh smiling and saying "Thanks mom". What are key aspects of the video? Kendra talks about something important in her life. She says that people think she is weird because she loves pumpkins so much, but it doesn't bother her. She goes on to say that the only thing she does differently than other people, is she spends time talking about her passion. She also explains what kind of items are in the store and where to look for them. She shows pictures of her family and pumpkins, and explains how much fun it is doing something like this with your family. She says that she makes sure to put pictures of her daughter in her store so that people can see the impact Punkin Love has had on her life. She states that this is her passion and she wouldn't change being in this business for anything. The last thing she says is "I hope you all follow your dreams no matter how scary it can be." She wants people to know not to be scared about their dreams are, but to go after them even if it seems scary. What are some specific examples of how you can use the information? Kendra often uses images of herself, pumpkin items, and images of her family in the video.
